Thursday, May 15.

The gasoline auxiliary sch. Constellation, Capt. Thaddeus Morgan, stocked $10,100 as the result of her southern seining trip, the crew making the splendid share of $190.10. This is one of the best stocks and shares ever made out south in the mackerel fishery and gives the Constellation a magnificent start for the season. Capt. Morgan will now go to the Cape Shore. He is doing a great hustle and should roll up a grand stock before the season closes.

Many were of the opinion that the Constellation was high line of the southern seining fleet, but in conversation with a TIME representative yesterday, Capt. Morgan modestly remarked that he did not claim the honor, as he believed that the gasoline auxiliary sch. Saladin, Capt. Flar McKown, was $1000 or more ahead of him.

Sch. Priscilla Smith, Capt. William J. Corkum, stocked $6300 as the result of her southern mackerel season, the crew sharing $133.88. This is the banner stock and share made by any sailing vessel in the southern seining fleet, leading all except the gasoliners. Capt. Corkum did a great hustle and is to be congratulated on his success.

Sch. Edna Wallace Hopper stocked $1728 on her fresh mackerel landed at Boston yesterday. She got $8.25 per barrel for her salt mackerel, stocking $1155 on them. Sch. Arthur Binney stocked $925 on her salt mackerel.

A letter to Orlando Merchant from Capt. Jeremiah Warren, who is now engaged in coasting, says that they passed through lots of schools of mackerel from 65 to 85 miles south by west from Block Island. According to this the fleet has been inside the fish since leaving the fishing grounds off New York.

The fare of sch. Hiram Lowell sold to John Paw & Son at $10 per barrel and that of sch. Rob Roy to Slade Gorton & Co. at $9.75 per barrel.

Sch. Lewis H. Giles has shipped 170 barrels of salt mackerel from New York.

Fresh mackerel are bringing 15 cents apiece at New York today.

The traps at Cape Cod took 10 barrels of mackerel yesterday.

Sch. Annie M. Parker is at Boston from south seining to fit for the Cape Shore.
